

for being named by the New Hampshire School Administrators Association in coordination with the American Association of School Administrators as New Hampshire Superintendent of the Year for 2001-2002.

Darrell has been a dedicated member of the educational community for many years. He was appointed superintendent in 1998 and formerly served as a teacher, principal and business administrator from 1976 through 1987.

An exemplary community contributor, Darrell has been actively involved in many educational associations and organizations including: adjunct faculty member Rivier College and Plymouth State College, chairman South Central School Administrators Association, representative Northeast Superintendents Leadership Council and member and past president of the Goffstown Rotary Club.

Darrell received his Doctorate of Education in Curriculum, Instruction and Administration from Boston College in Chestnut Hill, MA, his Masters in Education from Antioch University in Keene, NH and a Bachelor of Science in Education from Westfield State College in Westfield, MA.

As a former school teacher, I applaud Darrell for his devoted service to the educational community in New Hampshire. Thanks to his leadership and guidance, many young people in the state have benefitted from his skills in teaching and administration. It is truly an honor and a privilege to represent him in the United States Senate.●

HONORING WALT DISNEY

● Mrs. CARNAHAN. Mr. President, we are all familiar with the quote "I only hope that we don't lose sight of one thing—that it was all started by a mouse." Immediately, my mind turns to Walt Disney and a smile comes across my face. His lifetime achievements are well known by all and often told, but today I want to talk about the boy. Walt Disney grew up with roots deep in Missouri. A boy whose early childhood experiences and memories would be the foundation for the man who would take the dreams of America, and make them come true.

This year we mark the one hundredth anniversary of Walt's birth, and all over America people are gathering to celebrate. In Marceline, MO, Walt's hometown, the Centennial Celebration drew a reported 50,000 visitors anxious to participate. People came from all over the world to get a feel for what Walt experienced there, including a dedication to the kind of group effort that was a hallmark of American farming around the turn of the century. The idealized Main Street in Disneyland, the country life depicted in "Old Yeller," and even the fascination with animals that led to the True-Life Adventures, all have their origins on that farm in Marceline.

In Kansas City they also celebrate one of the most successfully creative men of the 20th century. At age 9, Walt and his family moved to Kansas City where his father bought a Kansas City Star newspaper route. Walt and his brother, Roy, had to wake at 3:00 a.m. every day to deliver newspapers, developing a work ethic in Walt that would later wear out all but the sturdiest of staff members. It was his father's gritty determination and resilience balanced by his mother's love of fun and a pleasure in people that added to his wealth of experience from which he was to draw in films and other creative ventures for the rest of his life. Legend has it that the idea for Mickey Mouse came to him from a memory of a friendly mouse that begged for food in his Kansas City art studio.

We all owe him our gratitude. Try to imagine a world without Walt Disney—a world without his magic, whimsy, and optimism. Fortunately we don't have to. Walt did more to touch the hearts, minds, and emotions of millions of Americans than any other man in the past century. A mouse may have started it, but through his work he brought joy, happiness, and a universal means of communication to the people all over the world.●

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL INTEREST RELATIVE TO JAPAN AND CHEMICAL WEAPONS—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT RECEIVED DURING THE ADJOURNMENT—PM 64

Under the authority of the order of the Senate of January 3, 2001, the Secretary of the Senate, on January 25, 2002, during the adjournment of the Senate, received the following message from the President of the United States, together with accompanying paper; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

To the Congress of the United States:

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 902 of the Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 1990 and 1991 (Public Law 101-246) (the "Act"), and as President of the United States, I hereby report to the Congress that it is in the national interest of the United States to terminate the suspensions under section 902 of the Act insofar as such suspensions pertain to the export of defense articles or defense services in support of efforts by the Government of Japan to destroy Japanese chemical weapons abandoned during World War II in the People's Republic of China. License requirements remain in place for these exports and require review and approval on a case-by-case basis by the United States Government.
